PORTUGAL-INTERVENTION

WASHINGTON, NOV. 5, REUTER -- A STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL REFUSED TODAY TO SAY WHETHER THE UNITED STATES WAS INTERVENING IN STRIFE-TORN ANGOLA BUT SAID THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE THAT NEIGHBORING ZAIRE WAS TRANSFERRING U.S. MILITARY SUPPLIES TO THE PORTUGUESE COLONY.

ACTING ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE EDWARD MULCAHY TOLD A HOUSE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE THE STATE DEPARTMENT WAS NOT AWARE AT THIS TIME THAT ANY MATERIAL PROVIDED TO ZAIRE WAS BEING TRANSFERRED TO ANGOLA.

HE SAID U.S. MILITARY AID TO ZAIRE CONSISTED CHIEFLY OF TRANSPORT AIRCRAFT, LAND TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATIONS.

PRESS REPORTS HAVE SAID THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN FUNNELLING AID TO ANTI-COMMUNIST FACTIONS IN ANGOLA, WHICH IS DUE TO BECOME INDEPENDENT NEXT TUESDAY. MR. MULCAHY SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT DID NOT COMMENT ON SUCH REPORTS.
